Birmingham, AL—The Gulf South Conference is proud to announce its All-GSC Men's Basketball honors for the 2007-08 season.

Highlighting the West Division is Harding forward Matt Hall who became just the third player in GSC history to win three GSC West Division Player of the Year awards. Hall earned his second consecutive honor and he is the fifth HU player to claim the laurel in the last six seasons.

Harding Head Coach Jeff Morgan secured his first-ever West Division Coach of the Year honor after leading the Bisons to their first-ever No. 1 seed in the GSC Tournament. Arkansas-Monticello guard D'Angelo Dean rounds out the individual winners in the West, claiming the West Division Freshman of the Year. Dean is the first UAM player since 2003 to earn the award.

North Alabama and Valdosta State led the way in the East Division, posting a pair First Team All-GSC members while also accounting for individual honors.

Guard/forward Casey Holt became the first UNA player to be named East Division Player of the Year since 1994-95, while Lions' Head Coach Bobby Champagne collected his first-ever East Division Coach of the Year accolade after leading UNA to the East Division Crown. Valdosta State forward DeAndre Washington becoming the second Blazer in four seasons to be tabbed East Division Freshman of the Year.

The All-GSC Teams are led by two returning First Team members. Hall and Christian Brothers forward Kevin Weybright return from last year's First Team. Valdosta State forward Devario Hudson and CBU center Nick Kohs make the jump from last year's Second Team.
